She had been ill for the past two weeks, but had been able to be about the house, and had eaten supper with the family last evening. During the night she had a sinking spell, and death soon followed, death being due to old age.

Christina Lahman was the daughter of Chris and Sophia Lahman and was the last of a family of five children. She was born in Baden, Germany, on Nov. 16, 1828, being aged four score and four years. She came to this country in 1846, going to Sandusky City and in 1860 came to Bucyrus, and has been residing on Galen street in the same house since 1867. She was united in marriage to Michael Walters in 1849, and this union was blessed with six children, three deceased. DR. MICHAEL WALTER DIES NEAR 97 YEARS

Early Bucyrus Physician Dies at Deshler

BURIAL HERE ON MONDAY

Deceased Practiced Medicine Here for Over Half Century, Beginning in 1863, and Was Credited With Supernatural Powers of Healing—Eldest Grandson is Past 50 Years.

News of the death at Deshler, O., this morning of Dr. Michael Walter, for over 50 years a citizen of Bucyrus, will be of interest not only to local friends and former associates of the venerable gentleman but to many scores of his former patients, who had a staunch faith in his skill in fighting maladies, and have believed that he possessed supernatural powers. While apparently making no claims himself in this direction, it is asserted by many that his treatments, accompanied often by incantations, cured when all others had failed.

Dr. Walter reached the very advanced age of 96 years, 7 months and 3 days. He leaves three children, Mrs. Robert Pratt of 900 South Sandusky avenue, Mrs. Jacob Goebelt of Deshler, at whose home he died, and Peter Walter of Toledo.

His body will be brought to Bucyrus Saturday and taken to the home of the daughter, Mrs. Pratt, corner of South Sandusky and Southern avenues. Burial being made in Oakwood. He was one of the oldest members of the Reformed church both in age and in the years of his membership.

Early Resident of Sandusky

Michael Walter was born in Baden, Germany, on April 15, 1824. He came to America at the age of 21, two years before the outbreak of the Mexican war, and located at Sandusky City. The year of his arrival there, he was united in marriage to Miss Christina Layman, a girl bride, aged only 15 when they were joined in wedlock, and for nearly 70 years they lived together, Mrs. Walter dying here on January 28, 1913 at the age of 84 years.

Dr. Walter studied medicine in Germany and practiced here through all the years of his residence in this country, until the last few years before his death. On coming to Bucyrus in 1863, he located at 331 West Galen street, near the Pennsylvania railroad bridge over the Sandusky, and for 53 years he lived in that house, leaving it four years ago in April when he went to Deshler to live with his daughter.

He leaves, besides the three children named above, a group of 21 grandchildren and a larger group of 47 great-grandchildren. His eldest grandchild, William Shale, of Lucas county, is past 50 years of age. He himself was the oldest and the last to die of five children, four sons and a daughter.

When the state laws required physicians to pass state examinations and have certificates to practice, Dr. Walter found himself unused to the modern requirements and he changed his method of practicing, still giving treatments and medicine but making no charge, his income being from voluntary contributions of those whom he thus served.

The venerable gentleman's death occurred at 5:05 o'clock this morning. He had been ill since July 21st, when he suffered a stroke of paralysis.

Nov. 25, 1920

Dr. Michael Walter was born on the 14th day of April, 1824, in Hockenheim, Baden, Germany. In the year 1847 he emigrated to America and settled in Sandusky, where he lived until 1860. In 1849 the deceased was united in marriage to Miss Christine Lehman. This union was blessed with six children, three of which have already gone before their aged father and entered into eternity. From Sandusky the deceased moved to Bucyrus in the year 1860 and from there he came to Deshler in 1917. Since then he has been residing with his daughter, Mrs. E. Goebelt. The deceased had always been a man of exceptional strength and vigor, but on the 21st of July he became ill and since that time his health began to fail him. Although he had not been able to leave his bed since then, he never complained but bore his sickness with very great patience until on the morning of November 18th, reaching the high age of 96 years, 7 months and 4 days.

He leaves to mourn his death, three children, Mrs. E. Goebelt, Deshler; Mrs. E. Pratt, Bucyrus and Mr. P. Walter, Toledo; 23 grandchildren, 65 great grandchildren and a host of friends and relatives.

Funeral services were conducted at the home of Mrs. E. Goebelt, by Rev. J. Kuhlman, after which his remains were taken to Bucyrus for burial

EDWARD WENNER IS BURIED HERE

Former Resident Dies at Farm Home-in-Trumbull County

It is with pryfound regrets that such a sudden and tragical circumstance should overwhelm a friend and former fellow citizen of this vicinitty. It is a tragedy that most assuredly, awakens deepest sympathy, of the neighbors and friends of his former home and community. This compassion and clemency reaches out to the unfortunate one, and to the entire family circle. The very sad affair must forever remain a hidden mystery and all his neighbors, friends and acquaintances can only cloud the whole transaction in a tender mantle of charity.

Edward James Wenner, son of Jacob and Caroline Wenner was born in Seneca county, Ohio, February 17, 1870 and departed this life February 11th 1927 at his late home near Lockwood, Trumbull county, Ohio and had attained the age of 56 years, 11 months and 24 days. The deceased leaves to mourn their loss, the devoted wife, three sons—Charles W. of Mattoon, Illinois, Edward W. of Kent and Ralph at home. Three daughters, Mrs. Orlo Bishop of Leipsic; Mrs. J. E. Speicher of Alliance and Mrs. Frank Viers of Swanton, also three grandchildren. February 17, 1894 he was united in marriage to Miss Ida Elizabeth Goebelt, who labored diligently with her husband to carve out a comfortable home and competency for after years. The deceased was a man of hard and honest toil and played well his part in developing the tillage and general improvements in the rural parts of this community. The family moved from this vicinity to a location near Bradner, Ohio about three years ago. And after residing there three years, they moved to the locality of Lockwood, Trumbull county, the late home of the deceased. Hence, the family has been absent from this vcinity about six years. Besides his immediate family, the deceased has left to mourn two brothers, A. L. and Thomas, and one sister, Mrs. C. E. Burner, all of Deshler, also a wide circle of friends and neighbors. Mr. Wenner made many new and substantial friends in Trumbull county and just recently was made "Chief Gleaner" of the lodge of that order in his community.

His presence in the various activities and responsibilities of life will be very greatly missed, but such is the mysterious way of the world.

A precious one from us has gone,
A name we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.

Lament who will in fruitless tears,
Twill not return, tho should we try,
The one who's joined the mystic years,
Tho' praise the time that's passing by.

Time bears away our wail and woe,
As the strain of years depart;
And with it, the memory of sorrows go,
And, some day, a light unburdened heart.

Funeral services were conducted from the Park Presbyterian church in Deshler at 2 o'clock, Tuesday afternoon, in charge of Dr. W. C. Burns of Toledo, after which burial was made in Woodlawn cemetery.

UNUSUAL SUICIDE

Farmer Hitches Horse to Chain and Breaks His Neck

The body of Edward Wenner, 55 years old, who was until last Friday a farmer of Bloomfield township, lies buried at Deshler, Ohio, where it was taken following an unusual suicide.

Wenner killed himself by rigging up a chain apparatus which broke his neck. His daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ralph Wenner, who, with her husband, lived with Mr. and Mrs. Wenner, went to the barn early Friday to call her father-in-law to breakfast. She found him dead, one chain about his body and another about his neck. The first one had been attached to a post and the second to the harness of a horse. A whip lay nearby, giving evidence that he had started the horse with a blow from the whip. His neck had been broken by the pull and his life crushed out.

The reason for the suicide was a mystery. The family said they did not know why he did it. Mr. Wenner moved to the old Weaver farm in the southeast corner of the township about three years ago from Deshler. He had purchased the farm.

Sheriff Smith and Coroner Henshaw were decided after an investigation that it was a clear case of suicide.

The body was taken to Deshler Sunday.

Three preceded their mother in death. The living are Will Schaad of Bucyrus, Mrs. Emma Winner and John Schaad of Deshler. She was married after her husband's death to Lawrence Myers, from whom she was later divorced. They had one child which died when young.

Besides her children Mrs. Schaad is survived by her aged parents, five grandchildren, one brother, Peter Walter of Bucyrus, and two sisters, Mrs. Eva Pratt of Bucyrus and Mrs. Lizzie Goebel of Deshler. There are also many more distant relatives and a host of friends who sorrow for her death.

A. L. Wenner Is Killed When Charged By Bull

Popular Bartlow Farmer Found By Sons In Pasture Lot

Tragedy struck the unfortunate Wenner family again Saturday when Abraham Lincoln Wenner, 75, well-known former of the community, was killed by a charging bull in his fields.

The family thus suffered its third loss within recent months. In May, a son, Carl, died in the hospital at Napoleon as the result of burns suffered from a tractor explosion when he was working on the farm of Julian Heitman in Liberty township; and in the last week in June, a son-in-law, A. E. Bates, died of a heart attack at his home here.

Mr. Wenner's family became uneasy about him when he failed to return for supper at the usual hour Saturday evening. A son, Dale, finally went out to the field to see what had happened, and there found his father, where he had been gored to death by the bull.

Bull Also Charges Son

Dale also was charged by the bull, and at one time was lifted on the angry animal's horns and carried 50 feet. He finally managed to exhaust the animal, by sidestepping its charges, and made his escape. In the meanwhile, another son, John, went out to see what had happened, but as his brother and the bull were in another part of the field, he did not see them, although he also discovered the body of his father.

It was belived that Mr. Wenner was killed by the bull as he was rounding up the cattle and driving them to the barnyard.

He was born September 20, 1866, the son of Jacob and Caroline Wenner, in Seneca county. When he was seven years old, he came to this community with his parents, and they erected a log cabin on what is now the Frank Breece farm, and became pioneer residents of this area. Mr. Wenner helped clear the ground for the Wenner school, and there received his education.

He was married November 22, 1892, to Emma C. Schaade, of Bucyrus. Five years later he purchased his present farm, on which he cleared and tiled the land, and built a home. A leader in the community, he at one time owned and operated seven threshing machine outfits.

ABRAHAM L. WENNER

A familar and well-loved figure of our community will forever be missing because of the sudden death of Abraham L. Wenner.

Abraham Lincoln Wenner, son of Jacob and Caroline Wenner was born on September 20, 1866, in Seneca County, Ohio, and departed this life July 25, on his farm 3½ miles west of Deshler, at the age of 75 years, nine months, and 5 days.

The deceased has been a member of this community for 68 years, coming here with his parents from his birthplace when he was but seven years old. They built their home, a log cabin, on what is now known as the Frank Bruce farm. In early youth he attended the Wenne school and aided his father in clearing and farming part of the ground. At the age of twenty he started out to work for himself. On November 22, 1892 he was united in marriage to Emma C, Schnader of Bucyrus, O. After adopting two children, 11 children were born to them, 9 boys and 2 girls. After five years of marriage, he purchased his farm, which was formerly part of the Wenner estate. Here he cleared and tiled the land, and built his home. For many years he owned and operated threshing machines, besides his farming. At one time he managed seven rigs. In his later years, he devoted his entire time to his farm and family, remaining active in his farm life until death took him.

Born a farmer, raised a farmer, lived a farmer, and died a farmer, but

Struggle how-so-ever we may,
To climb life's ladder round by round
Homeward we must turn at close of Day.
There to lay our burdens down
And all our worries of renown.

It can always be said that he was a devoted husband, a kind, and helpful father, a loyal neighbor, and friend, and a whole-hearted believer in his Savior. His death came as a blow to all who knew and loved him.

Left to mourn their irreparable loss are: his wife and companion and following ten children: Mrs. Gladys Bush, Toledo, Mrs. Caroline Bates, of Deshler, Arthur E. and Walter E. of Liberty Center; Harry A., Napoleon, Albert H. Weston; Mrs. May Light, and Rodney N. Wenner, McClure; John P. and Dale A. at home, Two sons Richard Lee and

Crushed Stone Suffocates Man

John Wenner Victim At Waterville Quarry

Buried when he fell or slipped into a bin of fine crushed stone, at the France Stone Co. quarry at Waterville, a 35 year-old Deshler man was suffocated yesterday afternoon, Dr. Paul Hohly, coroner, said.

The victim, John P. Wenner, sank into the gravel when another employee opened the chute of the bin to load a truck, according to Nelson Danford and Robert Nesbit, sheriff's deputies.

Mr. Wenner apparently had gone to the bin to break up the stone, which had clogged because of dampness, and failed to hold onto the ladder in the bin when the chute opened, the deputies said they were told.

Other employees, including Mr. Wenner's brother, Rodney, of McClure, had noticed him working, then saw him quickly disappear. Mr. Wenner seemed to have been "sucked down by the fine stone as though it were quicksand," they said.

After seeing the victim's feet hanging through the chute, fellow workers went to the top of the bin, lowered a rope around the body and pulled him out.

The death was ruled accidental by Dr. Hohly.

A lifelong Deshler resident, Mr. Wenner worked for the stone company five years. He was a World War II veteran and a member of Deshler Presbyterian church.

Also surviving are his mother, Mrs. Emma Wenner, Deshler; brothers, Arthur, Star City, Ind.; Walter and Dale, Deshler;, Harry, Napoleon, and Albert, Weston, and sister, Mrs. Caroline Bates, Deshler, and foster sister, Mrs. Gladys Cook, Toledo.

Services were held at 2:00 p. m. Sunday in the Dubbs Mortuary, Deshler, and burial was in Woodlawn cemetery, Deshler.

Air Mission Of Mercy Is Called a Test

COLUMBUS—A Bucyrus man flown to University Hospital here by helicopter in what was described as a test for the future remained in critical condition today after an operation for a heart ailment Sunday.

Cleo Burk, 66, was whisked to the hospital on a mission of mercy by an Ohio National Guard helicopter. He had been in Bucyrus Hospital.

The airlift was used because Burk's physician, Dr. G. W. Bowersock, said he needed a quiet trip to Columbus.

Burk had suffered a separation of tissue in the aorta, the heart's main artery, doctors said. He was admitted to the hospital's intensive care unit after the helicopter landed near the College of Pharmacy on the Ohio State University campus.

The airlift was described as a test for the future, when patients may be moved more frequently by air.

Cleo R. Burk

BUCYRUS—Cleo Robert Burk, 66, died at 10 a.m. Tuesday in University Hospital in Columbus. A Bucyrus resident, he retired as Swan Rubber Co. maintenance foreman in 1966. He was a Henry County native.

Born Oct. 15, 1901, he was a son of William and Cora Pratt Burk.

Surviving are his widow, Lucille Corwin Burk; his mother of Bucyrus; three sons, Robert of Bucyrus, Charles of Rock Island, Ill., and James of Maumee; 11 grandchildren, and a brother, Roy of Bucyrus. A sister is deceased.

Services will be Friday at 1:30 p.m. in Wise Funeral Home. Burial will be in Oakwood Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday night.
